

FRANCIS LACSON, Financial and Client Servicing

Francis joined the Lane Group in June 2012. Originally from New Jersey, Francis brings with him his financial experience of working on Wall Street in New York City, where he was a licensed stockbroker with a major US financial company. Also, he has experience in the banking industry where he had worked for two major US banks on the East Coast.

Francis manages our team and is responsible for providing client servicing requirements.
