

EXECUTIVE/DIRECTOR AND EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION SPECIALIST

- Lane Caputo Compensation Inc. [LCC] is an independent executive compensation consulting firm specializing in executive, director, and employee compensation, including the mining, energy and bio-technology industries. Our firm helps both privately held and publicly traded companies to be competitive in their compensation and incentive programs, which ultimately will increase employee retention.
- From coast to coast, LCC sets the standard for executive compensation programs and policy design, particularly among top energy, mining, technology and bio-medical companies.
- We provide carefully researched, objective advice to our clients in their common pursuit of practical and defensible pay policies, plans and practices, while recognizing local market pressures and enhancing shareholder value.
- The depth and breadth of LCC's service offering, from developing executive compensation strategies to navigating the linkage to ESG targets make LCC essential to our clients success.
