

EMPLOYEE GROUP BENEFITS – HEALTH AND PENSION

- Lane Quinn Benefit Consultants Ltd. now Quinn Advisory Group [QAG] is the largest benefit provider to the resource sectors in Western Canada, including energy and mining.
- Since our inception in 2001, we have become an industry leader in domestic and international employee benefit programs. We have spent the time and effort to build a team of experts and as a result, become an extension of our clients team. We understand that employee benefits can be challenging and complex. Our specialized benefits team helps our clients navigate through the benefit processes, including legislation, as thoroughly and painlessly as possible.
- While we have experienced significant growth and change over the years, it is our dedication to exceptional service and sound benefits advice that continues to define and separate us from other health and pension benefit providers.
- Our dedicated service team provides each client's HR department with a valuable resource in managing their entire benefits program, to ultimately reduce both their time and company operating costs, while maintaining a superior level of employee benefits that enhances employee retention.
